

Do not change the FCC classification of ISPs back to Title 1. Leave them as Title 2 to preserve our Net Neutrality protection.

Aside from the greater good this will ensure, I am a Web Developer, and I don't believe that any website I create should be subject to speed limitations if my competition pays more for service. This opens a black hole of pay-based marketing and user experience, and will stifle creativity, growth, and innovation.